CHRISTMAS 2023

Christmas Message

As I write this message, I am expecting the imminent arrival of a baby – my second – and by the time you read this I'll be tackling the task of regularly changing the nappies of a three-month old. I have just paused my typing for a moment in expectation of your applause and well wishes. It is unsurprising, therefore, that as I contemplate Christmas it is the childbirth that I focus on, rather than the shepherds or the wise men or the cacophony of angel song. The heart of the Christmas story is the birth of a baby.

Baby's, like dogs, are not just for Christmas. That first day of Jesus' life was one of tremendous celebration...the next day was perhaps a little more mundane. Celebrating Christmas can be like that: one day loaded with expectation, that then dissipates with a return of daily life. The baby doesn't disappear though; a whole life now lies ahead, and the parent doesn't take days off. It can be challenging, it can be exhausting, it can be fraught. Perhaps the greatest parental task is to never let the joy disappear. Every day after, even though it won't be as celebratory as the birth, is a day of gift and a day to give real and joyous thanks.

As you shop in Partridges in the run-up to Christmas – as you buy Turkey and Stilton and hampers and that extra bottle of fizz – bear in mind that the shop remains after the big-day. The pleasures and comforts on offer don't disappear on December 26th. The community it serves and helps build will continue for another year, and the opportunity Partridges provides to make every day a little bit special is always on offer. So DO make every day one of joy and delight, share that joy in charity and love with others, and as you do give thanks to God. This way, we keep Christmas in our heart every day!

"Scrooge was better than his word...He became as good a friend, as good a master, and as good a man, as the good old city knew, or any other good old city, town, or borough, in the good old world... and it was always said of him, that he knew how to keep Christmas well, if any man alive possessed the knowledge. May that be truly said of us, and all of us! And so, as Tiny Tim observed, God bless Us, Every One!"

FESTIVE GREETINGS!

"It's been a Royally Good Year."

2023, our 51st year, has been another very busy and memorable year for the Partridges Community.

We held our first ever Coronation Celebratory Party at the beginning of May with a Fine Food Market on the Kings Road which resulted in a lot of media attention from around the world. His Majesty The King celebrates his 75th birthday on Tuesday 14th November (please see the front cover) and 4 days later we will see the Christmas lights switch on in the Duke of York Square.

In August we were delighted that our World Chelsea Bun Awards were featured in Channel 5's documentary about the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea. I am pleased to say that this year the World Chelsea Bun Awards raised £10,727.02 for The Children's Surgery Foundation which is the highest figure to date and we are very grateful for the sterling support we received from Jane Asher, Princess Michael of Kent and Lady Frederick Windsor in helping to raise this amount.

In October we celebrated the 900th Fine Food Market that we run in collaboration with Cadogan outside our shop every Saturday. Many hundreds of Start Up Artisans, or Startisans, as we call them, have made this location their first stop, after the kitchen table, in launching their products. We feature 5 of these innovators on pages 12-13 of this catalogue.

One of the key ingredients for the survival of a long standing shop like Partridges is the importance of innovation and also making a point of difference between ourselves and other food retailers. This is obviously foremost in the range and quality of the products that we select and sell. But it is also evidenced by some of the creative ideas we try to bring into the routine experiences of the daily food shop. Primarily this includes the Fine Food Market with its focus on start ups and also the annual World Chelsea Bun Awards which is a lot of fun to manage but also has a charitable intention too.

This year we have continued to innovate in smaller ways by introducing a silver tableware section curated by Linda Jackson which was extremely popular during the Coronation period and hopefully will be this Christmas too.

We also have arranged two book signing events. In July Bill Wyman the ex- Rolling Stone signed copies of his acclaimed new book about Chelsea at Partridges. And on Saturday 18th November at the Christmas Lights Switch On Bill Wyman will join us again, as well as Glynn Christian, the renowned food writer and author, who will be signing copies of his latest book "The Deli Detective Wraps It Up". Glynn was the founder of the iconic Mr Christian's just off the Portobello Road and was a pioneer of modern TV Cookery on the BBC. See page 7 for details.

If any other budding local authors wish to hold a book signing for their new books in Partridges please feel free to ask. And do watch out for other exciting initiatives we are planning for 2024.

So, all it remains for me to say is "Happy Birthday Your Majesty for November 14th" and a very Merry Christmas to all our friends and customers who have kept us going through thick and thin.

Jon Shepherd

BOOK LAUNCHES

Bill Wyman Book Signing at Partridges

Partridges were delighted to welcome legendary musician and author, Bill Wyman to its store in Duke of York Square in July. Bill answered some questions from Partridges owner John Shepherd before he met fans and signed copies of his new book, Bill Wyman's Chelsea: From Medieval Village to Cultural Capital.

Bill's book explores the rich history, cultural significance, and transformation of Chelsea.

He has worked in Chelsea on and off since 1962 and lived here since 1982, and draws on his personal experiences and deep connections to the area. The guidebook to Chelsea also includes 4 walking tours, over 300 photographs, many of which were taken by Bill, maps, an A-Z of streets and much more.

The book is available to buy from Partridges and online for £16.99.

Attendees of the event had the opportunity to meet Bill Wyman, buy signed copies of his new book, and engage in conversation with him.

John Shepherd, Owner of Partridges. "Chelsea holds a special place in the hearts of Partridges and of so many others, and we were honoured to provide a platform for Bill Wyman to share his insights and experiences of the area. We are particularly thrilled at his championing of the great Chelsea Bun which we have spent the last 5 years reviving interest in through the World Chelsea Bun Awards."

"Partridges was the vision of my late brother Sir Richard Shepherd, who in the 1960s studied at the LSE with Bill's fellow Rolling Stone Mick Jagger. At the time Richard made it known that Mick would be better off concentrating on his studies so that he could always fall back on a job in education if the music didn't work out. This is now regarded as one of the worst pieces of advice dispensed in the 1960's. I did not offer Bill Wyman any career advice!."

John Shepherd welcomes Bill Wyman

Glynn Christian: New Book

Glynn Christian the renowned food writer and local author has written a new whodunnit book "The Deli Detective Wraps It Up".

Glynn was the founder of the iconic Mr Christian's just off the Portobello Road and was a pioneer of modern TV Cookery on the BBC and his book is available to buy at Partridges for £7.49.

The book is available to pre-order ahead of the book signing here

Saturday 18th November – Book Signings & Christmas Lights Switch On

Bill Wyman will be in Partridges Duke of York Square from 12pm- 1pm to sign copies of his book and Glynn Christian will be signing copies of his book here from 2pm to 3pm.

THE 5TH WORLD CHELSEA BUN AWARDS

Bake-Off Competition hosted by Partridges

We are thrilled that for the first time since 2019 we were able to hold a live tasting competition for the World Chelsea Bun Awards this year, as well as the usual Instagram competition. Also we were delighted that Channel 5 decided to film the live tasting competition as part of its Kensington & Chelsea: The Royal Borough series.

The bake-off was held to celebrate World Chelsea Bun Day, which falls on the first Saturday in May, and as in previous years entry was free but entrants were encouraged to make a donation to The Children's Surgery Foundation.

The Judges included HRH Princess Michael of Kent, (who stood in for Lady Frederick Windsor), actress Jane Asher, Munther Haddad and John Shepherd the owner of Partridges. Lady Frederick Windsor and Jane Asher are both Patrons of The Children's Surgery Foundation and Munter Haddad is the Chairman.

The Live Tasting Competition

The 22 entrants were filmed by Channel 5 as they delivered their buns to Partridges in Duke of York Square on Friday 19th May ready for the live judging event. Early on Saturday morning HRH Princess Michael of Kent, John Shepherd and Munter Haddad rated each bun on its presentation and taste and agreed on a short list of Chelsea Buns for Jane Asher to judge at the theatre in Richmond where she was performing. You can see the final decisions of the judges on the next page and watch the film of the competition on the Channel 5 app.

CHRISTMAS 2023

TIPS FROM OUR CELLAR MASTER

As Christmas approaches, our cellar master Carlos Mendoza who is based at Partridges Duke of York Square would be delighted to recommend some fine wine pairings to go with the traditional Christmas food.

What better way to start the Christmas celebrations than by uncorking a bottle of champagne or a sparkling wine? Bottles of fizz have long been associated with moments of joy and celebration and are the perfect choice for the festive season but with so many types available, it can be difficult to make the right choice. Here at Partridges, we are happy to guide you.

Billecart-Salmon Brut Reserve is a light, fine and harmonious Champagne. It is a blend of Pinot Noir, Chardonnay and Pinot Meunier from three different years and sourced from the best sites in the Champagne region. This cuvee is recognisable by the finesses of its slowly rising bubbles and its persistent and plentiful mousse, which expresses aromas of fresh fruit and ripe pears. It is perfect as an aperitif and can be enjoyed with a variety of dishes.

NYETimber 1086 is the first ever prestige cuvee made in England and represents the pinnacle of estate winemaking. It has a rich and generous fruit character alongside savoury and caramelised flavours. Best drunk with lobster, scallops, oysters, and turbot.

Ayala Brut Majeur has expressive, nuanced citrus fruits and white flowers and has light gold, refined bubbles.

Delicious when drunk with white fish, shellfish, poultry or a cheese platter.

Jansz Premium Cuvee is coupling of old world inspiration and new world innovation. This sparkling wine is crafted from vineyards throughout Tasmania, all of which produce high quality Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. Aromas of honeysuckle, citrus zest and fresh strawberries and a palate of delicate fruit flavours and fine creamy texture. Best enjoyed with oysters and fritto misto with lemon aioli dip.

Zonin Cuvee Zero combines 200 years of Italian family winemaking tradition in a bottle of Italian alcohol-free bubbles. The prosecco is de-alcoholised and the taste is described as a 'creamy mousse of pear and green apple punctuated by light citrus and florals and a long finish that gives the sensation of alcohol'. Best drunk with a rich and creamy cheesecake.

We can fulfil large wine orders for companies or individuals. Carlos and the other members of our team will be happy to help you select the perfect wines.
